

We have reached 20 proud years of development of SOCKS BMD d.o.o.

Maintaining our good reputation and building future success depends on whether each of us is personally responsible for our own and our common behavior, quality of working together and coexisting in our SOCKS BMD d.o.o.

We are dedicated to maintaining an atmosphere in which every employee can feel safe seeking advice and expressing their views.

I believe that our people and values are significant to our success.

Our values:

Continuous development, Responsibility, Teamwork, Confidence and perseverance, Respect for laws and regulations, Respect for human rights and diversity have helped create a business culture defined by the people we care about: our colleagues, our customers, our suppliers, our associates and the community we live and work in.

These values are the drivers of our future success.

By working together and respecting all our adopted policies and values, I am sure that we will meet our goals and achieve the common success we will all take pride in.
